151	138	Thomas W	Harper			1773	6	23	1835			Marble	A native of Bishopgate London England who died June 23 1835 aged 62 years His death was caused by the falling of the English church at the great storm that happened here June 19 1835 Tired with wandering through a world of sin Hither we come to natures common inn To rest our wearied bodies for a night In hope to rise in natures truest light This world a scity full of crooked streets And death the market place where allmen meet Hunt notes that the common story is that Thomas Harper was standing out in the great storm of 1835 and when advised by some one to enter the inn which then stood opposite the church he uttered the most profane oaths declaring he would not fear God until he felt his power was instantly struck with a piece of timber from the falling church and died four days afterward	Y		Y	Y		Y
