RECORDS OF THE GRAVEYARD OF THE
STELTON BAPTIST CHURCH

The following listing, made in December, 1995, is a copy of a compilation of 281 graves in the Stelton Baptist Church's Grave Yard (on Plainfield Avenue in Edison, founded in 1689) originally made by Dr. Ezra M. Hunt in October, 1880. The copy is being made now for three reasons: first, to create additional copies that can be placed in local libraries and other institutions so the information is more readily available to the public than it has been to date; second, to better preserve the information because the paper on which it is recorded is old and deteriorating; and, finally, to create information that can be sorted in ways that make research easier. Consequently, as a result of sorting the data, there are four sections to this revised document: (1) In the same sequence as the original; (2) Sorted in alphabetical order; (3) Sorted in Birth-Year order; and, (4) Sorted in Death-Year order.

The title page of the record from which the copied data was taken (a carbon copy of a 21-page document, the original of which is not in our collection) reads as follows:

RECORDS OF BURIALS

STELTON GRAVE YARD

COMPILED BY Dr. Ezra M. Hunt
October 1880.

On page 20 of the original, after the first record on the page, appears the following notation:

This includes all graves
north of the church.

That is, a total of 254 graves. Immediately after that note are records for 27 more graves, followed by another notation at the end of page 21 that reads:

This completes the graves
south of the church.

The original list of grave records as it was prepared in 1880 seems to follow no particular order, except perhaps as Dr. Hunt encountered them when he was doing his compilation. In addition, each record is preceded by an unexplained upper case W or B or G, which may stand for the color of the headstone (e.g., White, Brown/Black, Gray). In the following table of information, only the column headed RECORD faithfully follows Dr. Hunt's data. The first three columns have been included (and are derived from the inscriptions) to be able to sort the records. Please note, however, that the birth year in column 2 might be off by one year in those cases where insufficient information is shown on the record to make a more exact determination.

Although there is no indication whether any of those buried here were soliders in the Revolutionary War, the Soldiers Monument in the graveyard carries the names of thirteen men who died in the Civil War, four of whom were members of the congregation while another three were members of the church. The following inscription appears on the monument, but in the listing below, the RECORD column will not repeat these words but will just indicate "Soldiers Monument":

Soldiers Monument
The first Baptist church & congregation
of Piscataway dedicate this monument to the memory of their patriot sons and their associates who fell in the battle of Fredericksburg Dec. 13, 1862 in defence of our National Union
members of Co. C, 28th. Regt. N. J. Vols.

A few brief notes about those buried here. The earliest birth date is that of Elizabeth Sutton, who was born in 1679; and two others were also born prior to 1700. In total, about 125 were born before 1800, the rest between 1800 and 1879. The oldest "resident" is Abraham VanGilder, who was born in 1701, lived through the French & Indian, Revolutionary, and 1812 wars, and died in 1818 at the age of 116 years, 4 months. Five of the graves are unidentified, and of these, two carry poignant inscriptions; one says "Dora," the other "Little Dora."
